MERE GIRL IS GREATEST OF ALL EQUESTRIENNES

May Wirth to be seen here with gigantic Super-Circus.

The still a slip of a girl, May Wirth was this past winter officially recorded as the greatest bare-back rider of the generation. Fresh from new triumphs achieved in Australia and the hippodromes of South America, the famous equestrienne is now touring America as one of the super-features of the great new Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey shows combined, to exhibit here Wednesday, September 3.

The list of Miss Wirth's accomplishments is a long one, but there are two things in which she excels.
She is the only rider among either women or men who can do a "forward somersault" on a running steed, and she wears a smile that "won't come off." It has been said of her that she "comes off her horse," her smile never "comes off her."

May Wirth is of a family of famous riders who compose what is known in the circles of the British Isles as the "royal riders of the ring." This family includes May Wirth, Mrs. Martin Wirth, Stella Wirth and Frank Wirth.
May Wirth will be seen in solo riding numbers in which she will perform her most difficult feats. She is but one of many remarkable equestriennes. Others include the famous Hannford and Davenport families, the McPherson clan of Highland horsemen, the famous dwarf rider, Signor Bagonghi, and scores of artists equally famous.

In consolidating America's two great circuses, the thought has been to assemble on one mammoth arena program the pick of the world's foremost artists. Not only has this been accomplished as regards equestrians, but has been extended to include all of the most famous acrobats, gymnasts, acrobats, wire walkers, balancers and jugglers. And the host of dumb actors are equally remarkable both as to number and achievements.
There is a single elephant act which introduces a "quarter of a million pounds of actors." The clowns exceed all past gatherings in number and drollery. The street parade is the longest and most costly ever offered in America. In addition to its remarkable array of scenic talent, the maintaining program includes a gigantic introductions pageant that is said to surpass anything of the kind ever seen before.

ENCAMPMENT AT END

Kansas Guards Leave Riley Tomorrow
After Two Weeks' Outing.

Camp Funston, Kan., Aug. 26.—The Kansas National Guard, which has been holding its annual encampment on Republican flats on the Fort Riley military reservation during the last two weeks, spends its last night in camp tonight. Early Sunday morning, all units will entrain for their home stations.

Because of the large number of men who had actual warfare experience in France of this year's encampment of the national guard is said to have been unusually successful. Half the time was devoted to maneuvers and the other half to work on the rifle range.

BISHOP WISE HOME

He Will Make Tour of Several States
In Big Campaign.

Bishop James Wise arrived in Topeka Friday after a six weeks' vacation spent at St. Joseph Island, Ontario. Bishop Wise lectured at the summer school of the Episcopal church at Racine, Wis.

The work of the Kansas diocese during the next three months will be mainly conducting the nation-wide campaign in the state. The feature project of the campaign will be the effort to make Bethany a complete college for women. When arrangements are completed Bethany will be the only completely equipped Episcopal women's college in the west.

In September, Bishop Wise will speak in Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota and Ohio in the interests of the campaign, which will continue until January 1. The Rev. Otis E. Gray, chaplain of the Eighty-ninth division, and Archdeacon L. S. Smith will be the bishop's chief assistants in the campaign.

Bishop Wise will give the Labor Day address in Topeka.

VANDERBILT A "CUB" REPORTER

Forsakes Newspaper for N. Y. Herald Job—Admires Newspaper Men.

New York, Aug. 26.—Cornelius Vanderbilt Jr., son of Brig. Gen. Cor-nellius Vanderbilt, has forsaken Newport and its gay social life to accept a job as "cub" reporter on the New York Herald at $25 a week. It was learned here. The young millionaire obtained his position on his own initiative by a letter he wrote to the city editor of the paper.

"I wanted to be a reporter," he said tonight, "because I have always found newspaper men the brightest and most alert people I know. When in France with the Twenty-seventh division I always noticed that the duty calling for resource and initiative was nearly always given to a former newspaper man."

—in—
"The
CAREER OF
KATHERINE BUSH"

She had trapped him at last! The triumph she had craved was in sight.
It had cost her love,
home—even more.
Now she asked the man who loved her to help her marry his rival!

She saw it all!—the triumph she craved, the way to attain it, and the price she would have to pay. Then calmly, deliberately, she made her choice: "I'll do it!" and plunged into the big, fierce game for power and human hearts.

Do you think that a woman with beauty, brains and ability to attract men can live her own life, regardless, and win? See beautiful Catherine Calvert in Elinor Glynn's amazing history of such a woman's soul—then answer.

CHECKERS

The Most Famous of Melodramas
The Sensational Stage Success as a Great Film

Girl Wins Exciting Race in "Checkers"

The scene is a race track, the horses are at the post, and after three false starts get under way.
In the home stretch two of them fight for the lead, nose and nose, and in one of the greatest racing scenes ever witnessed an unknown horse, ridden by a girl jockey, dashes under the wire as a winner.

That is but one of the many thrilling scenes in "Checkers," the well known racing play which has been made into a big special moving picture.

Matinee 20c

"COME ON! REMORSE"

"Come on, Remorse!" How well one remembers the cry in "Checkers," the famous racing play which held the stage so many years, played the country from end to end over and again, and made millions for its owners. Remorse wins the rich stakes in the play, although unknown up to that time.
Remorse, Checkers, Push Miller, Pert Barlow and the rest—they all come to life again in the mammoth William Fox film production of "Checkers." Richard Stanton, who staged the picture, has taken advantage of the outdoor atmosphere to make one of the most spectacular pictures ever shown in this town.

Checkers is a reformed racetrack tout who falls in love with a Southern beauty. His adventure is beset with trouble, but he overcomes every obstacle.

Evening—Main Floor 35c, Balcony 25c

Good Old-Fashioned
Melodrama

of the sort that will never die—especially when it is well presented—is offered in "Checkers." As a stage play "Checkers" was in vogue for many years, but the stage play never could contain all the wallops they have filmed in the pictured version. In other words, all of the basic goodness of Henry Blossom's famous play has been retained, and has been added to with stuff that makes the offering a good attraction.
